The Oak View Civic Council has been incorporated since 1957 & celebrated 50 years of community service in 2007. Through the years there have been many community projects completed through the Council's fundraising efforts. In addition to the ever-popular & much anticipated annual events & activities that the Council sponsors, fundraising efforts provide year-round support for the improvement & beautification of the Hwy 33 corridor through Oak View as well as the Grant Program, which continues the tradition of providing funds to qualifying non-profit projects & groups such as Ojai Valley Youth Foundation, Help of Ojai, Ojai Valley Girls Softball League, Oak View Little League, Oak View Park & Resource Center, Ojai Explorer Post, Oak View Friends of the Library, Oak View Boy Scout & Girl Scout Troops and many other community groups who petition the Council for assistance.

Council perpetual programs, annual events & activities:

1. Beautification Program is dedicated to improving our community's appearance: YEAR ROUND
2. Grant Program is dedicated to providing funds to qualifying group civic projects &/or major community civic projects: YEAR ROUND
3. Christmas Tree Lighting Event brings the community together for an evening of holiday cheer: DECEMBER
4. Oak View Pageant of Excellence celebrates the community's pride & joy, our youth: MARCH
5. Easter Egg Hunt Event celebrates children & spring on the Saturday before Easter: APRIL
6. Memorial Day Parade celebrates our country & veterans in grand small town style: MAY
7. Annual Awards Dinner & Mayoral Election is dedicated to outstanding service: JUNE
8. July 4th Parade in downtown Ojai celebrates American independence: JULY

Join the Oak View Civic Council in developing & promoting community-based events!
Participation in Council activities is open to all, however you must be a member of the Council to vote on Council issues.
